

Apprend Michif

Learn Michif

Livr Trente-nef

Book Thirty-nine

2024

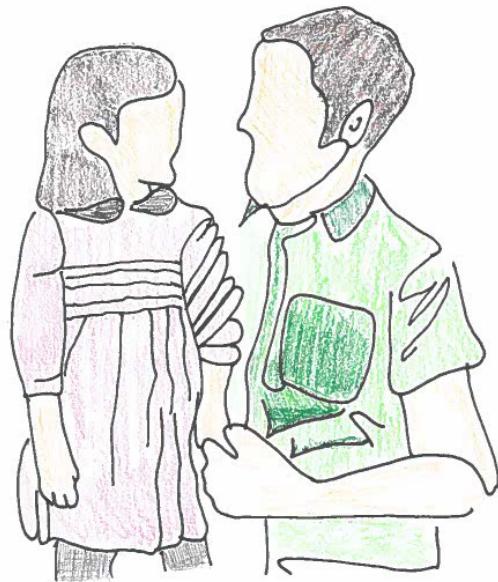

An early morning in mid-September, Poppa and Melyssa sit on the veranda and listen to the birds singing.

Un matin de bonne heure au mois de Septembre. Poppa (Pèpère) et Melyass sont assis sur le veranda. Ils écoutent les oiseaux chanté.

Poppa tells Melyssa they should start gathering food for their feathered friends.

Poppa sit à Melyssa que c'est le temps de ramasser du manger pour soigner les oiseaux.

Melyssa asks Poppa, "What do birds like to eat?"

Melyssa demande à Poppa que c'est les oiseaux manger?

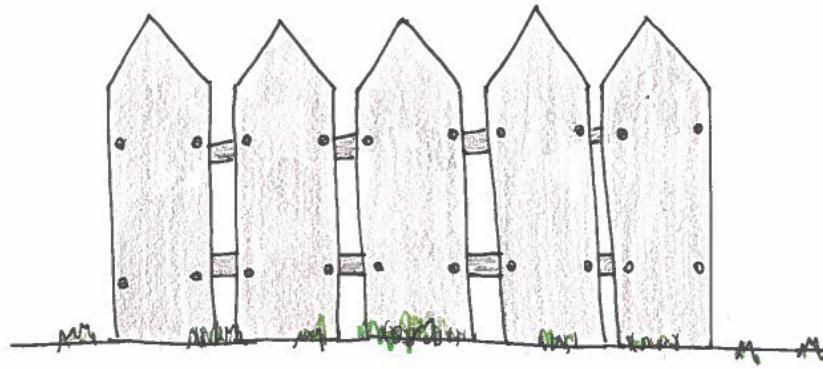

Poppa tells Melyssa that birds like sunflower seeds, nuts, bread crumbs and soda crackers.

Poppa dit à Melyssa que les oiseaux aiment les graines de soleil, les miettes, de pain, les noix et les biscuits soda.

Poppa and Melyssa go into the house to get food for the birds.

Poppa et Melyssa rente dans la maison pour cherché le mangé.

Poppa and Melyssa go outside and line up
the food on the fence posts.

Poppa et Melyssa sorte dehors et met du manger sur les poteaux de cloture.

Poppa starts to whistle to get the birds attention.

Poppa commence à siffler pour attirer les oiseaux.

Melyssa asks Poppa why he is whistling. Poppa said he whistles to let the birds know that there is food for them.

Melyssa demande à Poppa pourquoi qu'il siffle.

Melyssa tries to whistle, but doesn't know how.
Poppa tells Melyssa to keep on trying.

Melyssa essayé de siffler mais elle ne sait pas comment.
Poppa dit de continué à essayé.

Poppa tells Melyssa they will have to feed their feathered friends everyday until spring is here.

Poppa dit à Melyssa qu'il faut soigner leurs petite amis jusqu'à temps la neige est toute partie.

Canadian
Heritage

This publication made possible through the support and funding of the Prince Albert Métis Women's Association and Heritage Canada.

For more Michif resources visit the Prince Albert Métis Women's Association website at <https://www.pamwa.ca/>