

Street Outreach Workers - Prince Albert, Saskatchewan

About Us

Prince Albert Metis Women's Association (PAMWA) is dedicated to providing essential support and services to individuals experiencing homelessness in Prince Albert. We work closely with various community partners, government agencies, and Indigenous organizations to address the complex needs of our clients and facilitate their transition from street life to stable housing and support programs.

Position Overview

We are seeking compassionate and dedicated Street Outreach Workers to join our team in Prince Albert. These roles involve direct engagement with individuals experiencing homelessness, providing immediate support, and connecting them with vital services and resources.

Number of Positions and Working Hours

We are hiring for multiple positions:

- 1 position: 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM
- 2 positions: 1:00 PM to 9:00 PM

Key Responsibilities

- Conduct regular street outreach to identify and engage with individuals experiencing homelessness
- Provide immediate support, including distribution of food, beverages, blankets, and other essential items
- Assess client needs and facilitate connections to appropriate programs and services
- Collaborate with community partners, including healthcare institutions, housing providers, and Indigenous organizations
- Maintain accurate records and contribute to reporting requirements
- Participate in ongoing training and professional development

Qualifications

- Experience working with individuals experiencing homelessness or in related social services
- Strong understanding of the challenges and barriers faced by homeless populations in Prince Albert
- Knowledge of Métis and Indigenous cultures and experience working with Indigenous communities
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- Ability to work assigned hours, including evenings
- Valid driver's license and access to a reliable vehicle
- First Aid and CPR certification (or willingness to obtain)

We Offer

- Comprehensive training and ongoing professional development
- Competitive salary
- Opportunity to make a meaningful difference in the lives of vulnerable individuals
- Collaborative and supportive work environment

Prince Albert Metis Women's Association is an equal opportunity employer. We strongly encourage applications from Métis and other Indigenous individuals, persons with disabilities, and members of visible minorities.

To apply, please bring your resume and cover letter detailing your relevant experience, passion for supporting individuals experiencing homelessness, and your preferred working hours (day or evening shift).

Start day: As soon as possible